

Language-cum-Graduate Attributes Development programmes

Government College Seraj offers Language-cum-Graduate Attributes Development programmes to enhance students' communication skills, linguistic proficiency, and employability. These programmes focus on developing essential graduate attributes, including critical thinking, problem-solving, teamwork, and leadership. Expert faculty conduct interactive sessions, workshops, and training programs to improve:

- Language skills (English, Hindi, and regional languages)
- Communication strategies (verbal and non-verbal)
- Presentation and public speaking techniques
