PTA

The Parents-Teachers Association (PTA) of Government College Seraj plays a vital role in fostering a collaborative environment for students' holistic development. Comprising parents, guardians, and teaching staff, the PTA aims to promote academic excellence, extracurricular activities, and student welfare. With regular meetings and active participation, the association addresses concerns, provides feedback, and supports institution development. The PTA's executive body, led by the Principal as patron, works diligently to enhance parent-teacher communication, discipline, and student performance. Through annual contributions, the PTA funds various initiatives, ensuring a conducive learning environment and empowering students to reach their full potential.
