Regular use of playground

The playground at Government College Seraj is a hub of vibrant activity, utilized extensively by students, faculty, and staff for various sports and recreational pursuits. Daily, the grounds reverberate with enthusiasm as students engage in yoga and meditation sessions at dawn, followed by sports periods in the afternoon. Evening hours witness intense football, cricket, and volleyball practice sessions. Throughout the week, inter-class and inter-college tournaments take center stage, culminating in annual sports meets and state-level competitions. With top-notch facilities, including football fields, cricket pitches, and athletics tracks, the playground fosters physical fitness, teamwork, and sportsmanship among over 250 participating students annually.
