Prompt Response to Officials Correspondence

Government College Seraj at Lambathach has a well-established mechanism for official correspondence with various government and non-government agencies and departments. This ensures that responses to official correspondence are timely and efficient, typically within the stipulated time frame.

Key Features of Official Correspondence Mechanism:

- Dedicated Correspondence Cell: Handles incoming and outgoing communication ¹
- Digital Communication Platforms: Utilizes email and online portals for swift exchange of information
- Timely Responses: Ensures responses within stipulated time frame

The college's commitment to efficient communication is reflected in its administrative processes, ensuring seamless collaboration with government agencies, universities, and other stakeholders.
