CRITERION 1- TEACHING LEARNING

1.5. Examination Results

1.5.2. %age of Students with A Grade and above

Based on the results of the April/May 2025 examinations declared by Sardar Patel University- Mandi, the overall academic performance of students of the institution has been highly satisfactory and encouraging. A total of 397 students appeared in various undergraduate programmes, out of which 365 students successfully passed, while 32 students were declared unsuccessful. The overall pass percentage reflects a strong academic environment supported by effective teaching–learning practices.

Out of the total appeared students, 318 students secured A Grade and above, which constitutes 80.1% of the total strength, indicating a commendable level of academic excellence. Programme-wise analysis shows that BA III year recorded an excellent performance with 136 out of 137 students passing and 83.94% students securing A Grade and above. BA II year and BA I year also demonstrated consistent performance with 78.29% and 75.67% students achieving A Grade and above, respectively.

The performance of B.Com students remained stable, with 100% pass results in both B.Com I and III years, and 75% students securing A Grade and above. Notably, the results of B.Sc. (Medical and Non-Medical streams) were outstanding, with 100% pass percentage across all classes and a significant number of students securing A Grade and above, reflecting strong academic support and focused mentoring.

Overall, the examination results highlight the institution's commitment to academic excellence, quality teaching, and student progression, and demonstrate continuous improvement in learning outcomes across programmes.
