CRITERION 2- STUDENT SUPPORT, SERVICES AND PROGRESSION

2.11. Capacity Building of Students

2.11.2 Language-cum-Graduate Attributes Development programmes

During the academic session 2024–25, Government College Seraj at Lambathach conducted Language-cum-Graduate Attributes Development Programmes – Key Points

- Language-cum-Graduate Attributes Development Programmes are conducted through regular classes as an integral part of the teaching–learning process.
- Emphasis is laid on improving English and Hindi communication skills, including reading, writing, speaking, and presentation skills.
- Regular classroom activities focus on developing critical thinking, problem-solving ability, and decision-making skills among students.
- Students are encouraged to participate in group discussions, debates, presentations, and role-plays to enhance confidence and interpersonal skills.
- The programmes aim to inculcate essential graduate attributes such as teamwork, leadership qualities, ethical values, and social responsibility.
- Continuous interaction and feedback during classes help students improve academic performance, professional behaviour, and employability skills.
- These regular initiatives contribute significantly to the holistic personality development and career readiness of students.
