2.16. College Magazine Published

Government College Seraj at Lambathach successfully published its annual college magazine “Serajika” during the academic sessions 2023–24 and 2024–25. The magazine highlights the academic, cultural, and extracurricular activities of the college and reflects its strong literary and creative tradition.

“Serajika” provides a creative platform for students, faculty members, and alumni to express their ideas, thoughts, and talents. The magazine includes creative writings, poems, articles, paintings, sketches, photography, research papers, college news, major events, achievements, and alumni updates. Through this publication, the college encourages creativity, critical thinking, and active student participation, thereby strengthening the academic and cultural environment of the institution.
