CRITERION 3- INFRASTRUCTURE & RESOURCES

3.2. Library Facilities

3.2.2. Whether daily Newspapers (minimum 5), Magazines (minimum 3), and Journals (minimum 3) are available

During the academic session 2024–25, Government College Seraj at Lambathach ensured timely subscription of various magazines, journals, and newspapers to support teaching, learning, research, and competitive examination preparation of students and faculty members.

As per records, reputed magazines and journals such as Employment News, Competition Success Review, Science Reporter, Yojana, Kurukshetra, and leading newspapers including The Tribune, Amar Ujala, and Divya Himachal were subscribed for durations ranging from one to two years. Most of the subscriptions were made through online payment mode, ensuring transparency and accountability.

The payments were processed through the authorized vendor Hem Raj News Agency, Thunag (District Mandi, H.P.), and all expenditures were duly verified, recommended, sanctioned, and recorded as per government financial norms. The total expenditure incurred was properly entered in the institutional records and supported with payment vouchers and bills.

These resources significantly contributed to enhancing academic quality, general awareness, research orientation, and competitive exam preparedness, reflecting the institution's commitment to providing adequate learning resources during the session 2024–25.
