CRITERION 3- ICT FACILITIES

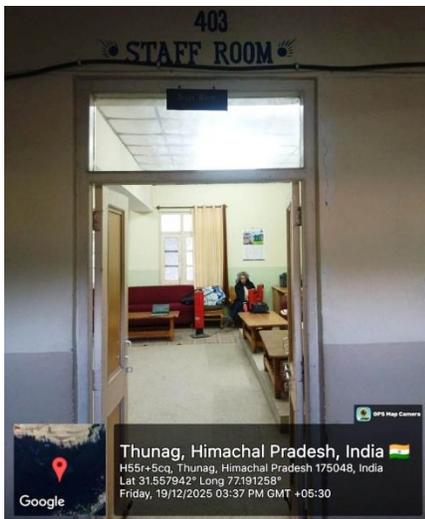

3.9. Canteen, Staff Room/ Faculty Room, Space for NSS, NCC, Rovers & Rangers, Examination Room, Medical Care Facilities

Canteen Facility

At present, the college does not have a canteen facility within the campus. Students and staff generally depend on nearby local arrangements for refreshment requirements. The institution acknowledges the need for a canteen facility and may explore possibilities for its establishment in the future, subject to availability of space and resources.

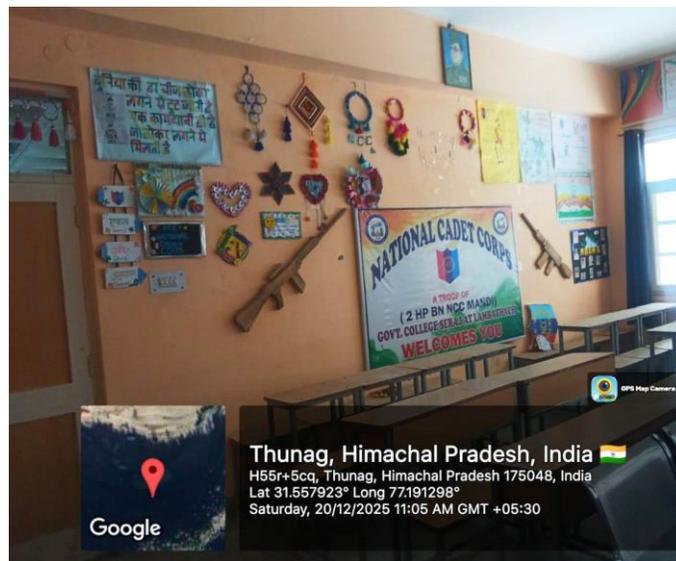

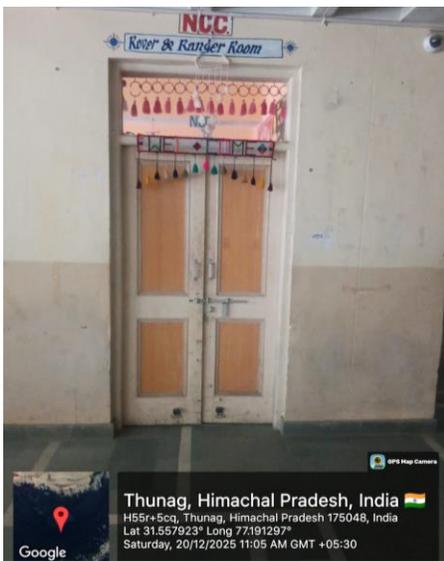

Staff Room / Faculty Room

The college has adequate Staff/Faculty Room facilities for teaching staff. These rooms provide a suitable space for faculty members to prepare academic work, conduct mentoring, hold departmental discussions, and carry out institutional responsibilities. The availability of staff rooms supports effective academic coordination and interaction with students.

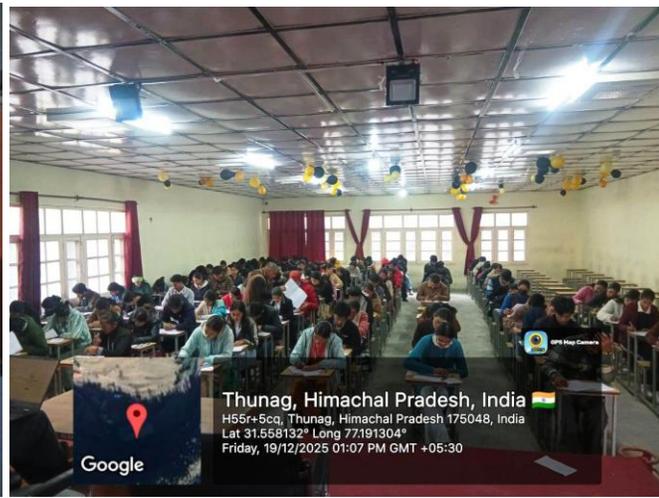

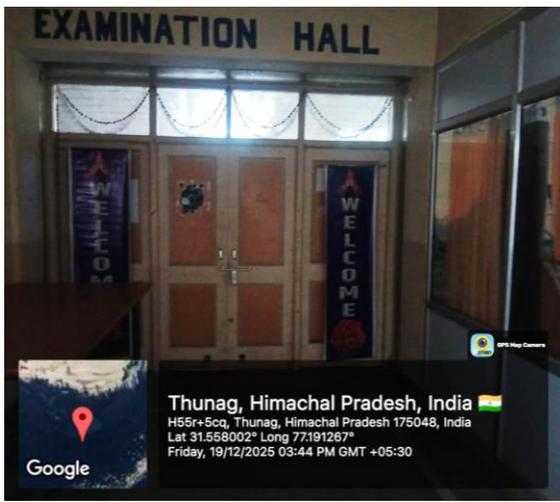

Space for NSS, NCC, Rovers & Rangers

The institution provides dedicated space for NSS, NCC, and Rovers & Rangers units, which is utilized for meetings, planning of activities, maintenance of records, storage of materials, and coordination of extension and outreach programmes. These spaces support the smooth functioning of co-curricular and community-oriented activities.

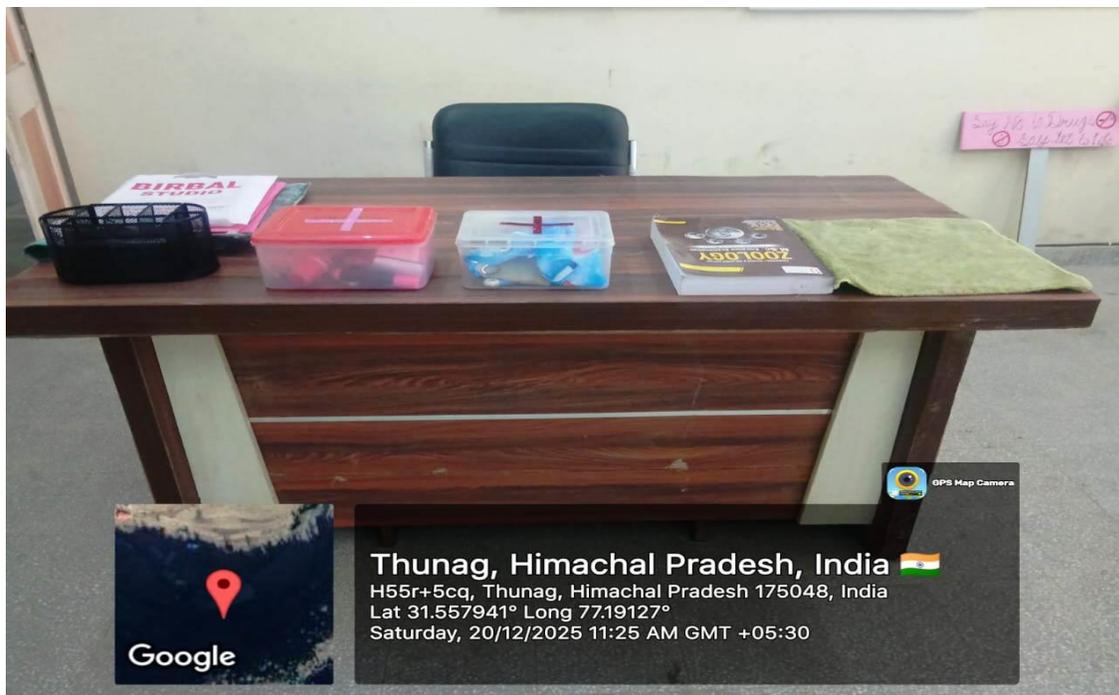

Examination Room

A separate Examination Room is available in the college for conducting examination-related work. The room is used for confidential activities, record maintenance, coordination of internal and university examinations, and other examination processes, ensuring smooth and systematic conduct of examinations.

Medical Care Facilities

The college provides basic medical care facilities, including first-aid support, to handle minor injuries and health-related issues of students and staff. In case of emergencies, students are referred to nearby health centers. The availability of basic medical support ensures immediate care and safety on campus.
